

Chris Baker – Black Country history publications

C J Baker, 2013, Pensnett – its name and origins, Staffordshire History Journal

C Baker, 2019, An ecclesiastical affair – scandal and libel in a Black Country parish, Part 1 – Pensnett in the Nineteenth Century, Blackcountryman, 52, 2

C Baker (2019) An ecclesiastical affair – scandal and libel in a Black Country parish, Part 2 – Charles Atherton, Curate and Vicar, Blackcountryman, 52, 3

C Baker (2020) An ecclesiastical affair – scandal and libel in a Black Country parish, Part 3 – The libel trial, Blackcountryman, 53,3

C Baker (2020) An ecclesiastical affair – scandal and libel in a Black Country parish, Part 4 – The aftermath, Blackcountryman, 53.4

C Baker (2022) “John Louis Petit and the Black Country”, Blackcountryman Summer 2022, 55.2. <https://www.blackcountryrsociety.com/post/john-louis-petit-and-the-black-country-by-chris-baker>

C Baker (2022) "The Shut End Primitive Methodist Chapel" Blackcountryman, Autumn 2022, 55.3

C Baker (2023) “The Pensnett Canal and Pensnett Railway”, Blackcountryman, Winter 2023, 55.4

C Baker (2024) “The Black Country – from the stone age to Domesday. Part 1”, The Blackcountryman, Autumn 2024, 57.3

C Baker (2024) “The Black Country – from the stone age to Domesday. Part 2”, The Blackcountryman, Winter 2024, 57.4

C Baker (2024) “The Black Country – from the stone age to Domesday. Part 3”, The Blackcountryman, Spring 2025, 58.1